Seventh Annual Sunset School Edition

47 TO GRADUATE FROM SUNSET SCHOOL

Exercises Scheduled Next Tuesday Evening at 7:45 In Auditorium

FORTY-SEVEN eighth grade pupils will graduate from Sunset school at exercises to be held in the school auditorium next Tuesday evening, June 8, at 7:45. After a fine school year the children have written an excellent graduation ceremony, with speakers and verse choir giving forth the wisdom of "The Book of the Class of 1937." Each child in the class will participate in the exercises, either as a member of the verse choir, or as a "speaker in the book," portraying the desirable character and personality traits under the following headings: social studies, usefulness, honor, English, friendship, music, wisdom, art, adjustment, manners, reading, leadership, health and personality. Arthur Hull, the eighth grade teacher, has charge of the graduation.

The program will have the following order: Processional, orchestra; songs by the glee club, under the direction of Miss Madeline Currey: "Lo, Morning Fair and Rose" (German) and "Waltz", (Brahms); "The Book of the Class of 1937"; presentation of the class of 1937, Otto W. Bardarson, Sunset district superintendent; presentation of diplomas, Adolph G. E. Hanke, chairman, Sunset board of trustees; recessional, orchestra.

Members of the graduation class are: Katherine Baggett, Lucille Finn, Eleanor Hart, Harriet Hatton, Donna Hodges, Marjorie Hoyt, Betsy Hunter, Jacqueline Klein, Carol Larson, Charlotte May, Madelaine McDonogh, Elaine McEntire, Yvonne Mercurio, Ann Millis, Dorothy Nash, Lillian Ohm, Gerry Shephard, Mary Jane Uzzell, Alice Vidoroni, Clara May Walls, Joan Warren, Ann Whitman, Emma Ann Wishart.

Edward Ricketts, Monty Stearns, Arthur Strasburger, Danny Villapondo, Golden Whitman and Dick Williams.
—BOBBY FROLI, 8th.

Class Wills

In the past years the graduating classes have left for the class to follow their "Wills".

In leaving a "will" the person will think of a thing he or she is most noted for. Then a person in the Seventh Grade in leaving the "will" the following year will leave it to a person who has just the opposite and needs the "will."

The "wills" are as follows:
Martin Arteilan leaves his boisterous laugh to Bill Morrison.

Donald Berry leaves his ability to play first base to Laurel Bixler.

Alfred Black leaves his shortness to Patsy Shephard.

John Castro leaves his ability to do nothing to Sean Flavin.

Bill Coffin leaves his manners to Hugh Gottfried.

Evan Cowley leaves his grin to Helen Wermuth.

George De Amaral leaves his boots to Carol Canoles.

Hugh Dormody leaves his tall stories to Gordon Stoddard.

Peter Elliot leaves his politeness to Charlotte Townsend.

Lucille Finn leaves her blush to Patricia Shepard.

Bobbie Frolly leaves his cartoons to John Osgood.

Robert Gargiulo leaves his shyness to Margot Coffin.

Charles Gansel leaves his ability to catch flies to Peter Thatcher.

George Gossler leaves his hair cut to Richard Whitmer.

Eleanor Hart leaves her timidity to Betty Paul.

Harriet Hatton leaves her sense of humor to June Petty.

Donna Hodges leaves her fire bush to Eleanor Johnson.

Betsy Hunter leaves her studiousness to Leona Ramsey.

Harold Johnson leaves his neatness to Jimmie Welsh.

Orville Jones leaves his freckles to Barbara Hume.

Jacqueline Klein leaves her day-dreaming to Howard Levinson.

Carol Larson leaves her gum chewing to Maeve Greenan.

Charlotte May leaves her dimples to Inez Machado.

Bobbie Mayes leaves his figure to Donald Morton.

Yvonne Mercurio leaves her black hair to Elise Beaton.

Madelaine McDonogh leaves her

OUR PRINCIPAL SPEAKS

The past school year has been marked by growth and harmony. Every effort is being made to provide a curriculum and a plant which will insure for Carmel an outstanding educational institution. The type of child enrolling in Sunset speaks well for the type of parents who are choosing Carmel for their home. We are attempting to meet the most exacting requirements of the residents of Carmel.

The unprecedented increase in enrollment during the past year and the increase looked for next year will begin to tax our pupil-housing facilities. Sunset School is keeping close stride with Carmel in its rapid growth.

The Sunset School edition of The Pine Cone is a representation of active pupil interest in community affairs. It is also complimentary to the boys and girls who graduate Tuesday evening, June 8. To these fine boys and girls who are giving and who have given so much to Sunset, we extend our very best wishes.

O. W. BARDARSON.

Eighth Graders Have Class Song

(Apologies to the writers of "One In a Million")

One in a million is lucky in life,
But our studies at Sunset will save us much strife.

After your instructions we'll all forge ahead.

We have to leave you. The parting we'll dread.

We want to thank you for all that you've done.

Our memories of Sunset are loaded with fun.

Thanks to our teacher and friends so
dear.

We'll always remember you here.
We're graduating and we want to say

We like our school and we think it's
O. K.

We've waited for these last days to come,

But now they're here, leaving won't be much fun.

We've a conviction and we'll hold to it strong.

Our days here at Sunset have been one sweet song.

And so in closing we know that it's true,

Our one in a million is you.

Elaine McEntire leaves her quietness to Ernestine De Ford.

Ann Millis leaves her quickness to Adaline Guth.

Dorothy Nash leaves her poison oak to Marilyn Strasburger.

Lillian Ohm leaves her ability to sing to Margurette McAdams.

Irving Parker leaves his patent leather hair to Jimmie Welsh.

Gerald Ray leaves his ping pong ability to Dorothy Nixon.

Edward Ricketts leaves his ability to gaze out the window to Beverly Douglas.

Gerry Shephard leaves her athletic ability to William Lang.

Monty Stearns leaves his wire hair

Open Air Mass In Old Cemetery

On Memorial Day, May 31, an open air mass was held in the cemetery of the Carmel Mission in honor of the dead. It was a high mass. After mass the graves of the Indians were blessed. Benediction was held in front of the big wooden cross that stands in the middle of the cemetery. It is believed to be the first mass held in the Indian cemetery. Father O'Connell conducted the ceremony.

CITY AUDIT REVEALS LONG-STANDING ERRORS

Report of C. L. Shaff Is Accepted By Council at Specially Called Meeting

On April 22, 1936, Ira Taylor, the newly-elected city treasurer of Carmel, was sworn into office at the first council meeting following the municipal election. His first words after taking the oath of office was to ask for an audit of city finances before he took over the treasurer's report. To the motion so ordering, Councilman Joseph A. Burge proposed the amendment that a certified public accountant be employed to do the job. Few weeks ago C. L. Shaff completed what proved to be a monumental task; the first thorough check of the condition of the city's bond funds in 10 years. It cost the auditor a year of his time and the city about $2000. It brought to light errors of the past that have snowballed through the years, and should have been discovered and corrected long ago. Most acceptable explanation appeared to be that past city councils had been remiss in being satisfied with superficial and incomplete audits. Shaff's report was formally accepted by the city council at a special meeting called last evening by Mayor Everett Smith. City Attorney Argyll Campbell requested that City Clerk Saidee Van Brower put in writing for the city council explanation of the discrepancies indicated in the auditor's report.

Recapitulation of the condition of seven of the city's special improvement funds heading the report under the title: "Summary of errors and omissions" showed the funds out of balance to the total amount of $2634.77. These were segregated as follows: assessments omitted, general, $486.36; approximate penalties, $230.11; approximate interest, $250.48; assessments omitted, Block 63, $28.32; approximate penalties, Block 63, $69.47; approximate interest, Block 63, $32.81; property dropped from rolls, $777.55; approximate penalties, $358.74; approximate interest, $262.06; collections less than assessments, $116.92; approximate penalties, Block 64, $12.53; approximate interest, Block 64, $7.02; error in collections, Block 64, .06; errors in assessments, $2.32.

In a document less voluminous than "Gone With the Wind", but not much, the report takes up in detail each of the special improvement district funds: Carpenter Street and Ocean Avenue; Second Sewer; First Sanitary Sewer; San Carlos Street; Seventh Street; Mission Street; Ninth Avenue; Twelfth Street; Dolores and Seventh Street. Many of the errors discovered were believed to have been outlawed by time; chief benefit of the audit was its thorough cleanup of past mistakes, result of informal and antiquated bookkeeping methods, preparatory to setting up a new and modern set of books in the city hall.

It appeared from the report that the errors pointed out by Shaff fell under several headings, some of them involved and technical, others simple clerical mistakes. He pointed out certain properties left off the roles because they had been sold to the city for taxes, although the city was unable to show a deed to the property. According to City Clerk Van Brower, in leaving these properties off the roles, she was acting in accordance with legal opinion. The report recommends in several cases that the properties should be restored to the improvement district tax rolls.

Shaff pointed out numerous instances in which he failed to find properties on the rolls, although the engineer's record showed that the special assessments should stand against them. In such cases the city clerk explained that either the properties had been "taken out of bonds" because the property owner had made the payments over a period of years in advance, or because money was in escrow to make the payments. Where no record of such payment was to be found, Miss Van Brower indicated that sums had been wrongly credited, and many other instances of such errors were pointed out in Shaff's report.

Miss Van Brower explained the clerical errors as resulting from insufficient time for checking the records of her own and the tax collectors' office, particularly in the period when all the work of the two departments were handled by herself and the late Chief of Police Gus Englund, ex-officio tax and license collector, without sufficient help. Much of the clerical work of the tax and license

Plumbers' Strike Quickly Settled

Sixteen men walked out of the A. D. H. Plumbing Co. building Wednesday morning, protesting the presence of Russell Lang, another plumber employed by the concern.

All of the men returned in the afternoon, however, and business was resumed.

According to Lloyd Long, president of the plumbers' local, all of the men employed at the A. D. H. company held union cards except Lang. The men, said Long, found that during the Salinas strike last year, Lang had worked on lettuce sheds and they therefore refused to allow him to join the union, and further refused to work with him on the job.

Crea Wilder, manager of the A. D. H. Co. refused to comment on the strike, hinting only that the plumbing union was "testing its strength."

The agreement reached May 20 between the Building Trades Council and the General Contractors Association included provisions for "preferential hiring", but no mention was made of a "closed shop." The striking plumbers, however, considered that Lang's record made him ineligible for work at the A. D. H. shop.

Lang was reportedly laid off until further notice when the strike broke.

At a meeting of the newly-formed joint committee of five members from both the Contractors Association and the Trades Council Wednesday afternoon, it was agreed that the walkout was an "outlaw strike." It was also decided that in the future any controversy from either side would be first taken up in the respective organizations, and then discussed at the joint committee for recommendation.

Milton Roach Is Given Freedom

Following a brief hearing, Milton Roach, held for involuntary manslaughter, was dismissed by Judge Ray Baugh Tuesday afternoon.

The hearing was held in Monterey, resulting from the death of Giacinto Re, aged Carmel woodcutter last Wednesday. Roach and Re had engaged in an altercation at a local smoke shop when Re, reportedly intoxicated, fell to the pavement, injuring his head.

Just prior to the hearing, an inquest had been held at Freeman Rancadore mortuary in Monterey, where the cause of the death was officially announced to be cerebral hemorrhage, resulting from a fractured skull.

At the preliminary hearing the same afternoon, several character witnesses and a number of people who were present at the scuffle were called. Judge Baugh abruptly declared the case dismissed following the brief testimony.

Attorneys Robinson and Campbell defended Roach.

SCOUT CAMP POPULAR

Girl Scout Camp is popular with many girls at Sunset. Emma Ann Wishart, Harriet Hatton, Laurel Bixler, Patty Ann Ryland, Elise Beaton, Charlotte Townsend and Dorothy De Amaral are planning on attending camp this summer.—LEONA RAMSEY, 7th.

Horse Race Time

Autograph Time

Horse racing time is the time for autograph hunters to start taking out their little books. This year the movie people are going to have a little rest because all the movie stars stayed home except four, Reginald Owen, Gertrude Niles, Monroe Owsley, and Mrs. Victor McLaglen, who will take part in the hunter trials.

Even if there aren't movie people, there are people from all parts of the world. Now let's see—there are Mr. and Mrs. H. Bridson from Alexandria, Egypt; J. K. Carson, the mayor of Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dixon from Cheltenham, England; Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Limper from Berlin, Germany, and A. J. McGuire from Honolulu.

TRAVEL BY TRAILER

Mrs. Willis Walker left for the city Tuesday in a house trailer owned by Dr. Sinclair. Dr. Sinclair is a very well known woman physician. Mrs. Willis Walker was accompanied by a maid and chauffeur. This house trailer attracted a lot of attention Tuesday afternoon. It extended from Stella's Dry Goods Store past Ewig's Grocery store when parked.

SEE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE

Madelaine Currey and Frances Johnson of Sunset school left Friday afternoon to see the Golden Gate bridge. They arrived in time to see the lighting of the bridge. After the lighting came the fireworks from both ends of the bridge. They went over the bridge four times. They stayed at Madelaine Currey's home in San Rafael.

collections she handled in addition to her own work; Gus Englund was not a trained bookkeeper. That payments to the various funds were often not properly segregated for deposit Miss Van Brower said she knew or suspected at the time; in the informal methods of doing business that prevailed in the city at that time, it appeared not to matter. If there had been thorough yearly audits, particularly after 1926, when five new bond funds had to be added to the city books in a single year, Miss Van Brower believes that much of the present tangle would have been cleared up long ago.

'Tatters' in Gala Opening

First Theater Reopens With Old-Time "Melerdramer"

By THELMA B. MILLER

THEATRICAL history was made in a historic setting last evening, when a museum piece of the theater which may rival "The Drunkard" in popularity came to the tiny stage of Monterey's quaint First Theater. The man at the helm of "Tatters, the Pet of Squatters' Gulch," was also the man who launched "The Drunkard" on its incredible career; Galt Bell, a producer who has become a specialist in the revival of 19th century melodrama. "Tatters" is too good for a three-night run. If the fickle public still has a turn of mind for period pieces, Galt Bell has found a worthy successor for "The Drunkard".

"Tatters" is not a set-piece; it is not static. It is the sort of performance which under the peculiarly electric guidance of the young producer, and with the exuberant spirits of the cast he has assembled, will never play quite the same twice. But barring major accidents, it should be a riot at any time. It plays two more nights at the First Theater; tonight and tomorrow. It is an entertainment that should not be missed.

The privilege of attending a performance in the quaint little theater is alone worth a trip over the hill. The settings by Phil Nesbitt are worth at least half the price of admission, and the show itself is a large bonus. On the tiny stage the figures of hero and villain loom in heroic mould. The Nesbitt backdrops are drawn into the action by representing actual objects and persons on the stage, like a naive effort to make the stage appear larger than it is. And the way the hard-working cast "doubles" in entrées and after show perfects the illusion of a rag-tag touring "rep" show doing its best to please the yokels of some hinterland 50 years ago.

Of the cast, Gordon Knoles appeared best to hit the mood of time and place. He played his part of the hero, the noble redskin, sensitively, in the requisite ham style, but he stopped just short of kidding the part; whereas some other members of the cast skid dangerously near the boundary line of burlesque. By purely arbitrary choice, Bob Bratt was our second favorite in the cast. So far as we know, this play marks the real discovery of a remarkable talent. Some time in the past we remember seeing him in a straight, serious role. Whoever cast him so, sinned against nature. He is a natural comedian, with a real gift for pantomime. He never slipped from character, though he had few lines, and his contributions as the company's leading tenor and song-and-dance man put to shame many an old-time vaudevillian.

Mary Henderson, somewhat reminiscent of Mary Pickford in her earliest period, is the personification of elaborate, girlish innocence, and artless grace. Jack Gribner, the moustachioed villain, was practically blown off the stage by the hisses of the audience. As Tatters' "eccentric" but loveable father, Blackie O'Neal not only adds much of the zest of the performance on his own account, but achieves a shrewd take-off of W. C. Fields. Betty Moorhouse is the coy second wife of Major Timberlake, with soft outlines concealing the essential battle-axe; her simpering daughter Clementina, is played by Manuela Hudson. Upholding law and order against the wily machinations of Phil Dolan's gang is Rex Flaherty, as Sheriff Gorgas. Milt Latham is the long-lost father of the half-breed hero; Lillian Collins does a fine character-comedy part as Mose Lilliblossom, Tatters' faithful body-servant. In the sinister entourage of the villainous Dolan may be recognized—with difficulty, for their disguises are practically perfect—our old friends William Shepherd, Dave Davis, and of course, Bob Bratt.

With this aggregation of talent, there is never a dull moment from curtain to curtain, and the tiny stage is usually a-boil with turgid action. The script is rich; punctuated with bombast, hyperbole, anticlimax and understandement. For additional atmosphere there is the incidental music of Norman (Mac) MacNeil and his accordian, assisted by Mary Walker at an old square piano which has just the right overripe tone for the time and place. Many of the cast assist with the olio, in addition to such popular old-timers as Ruth Marion and Connie Clampett. Not to be disregarded is Phil Nesbitt's drop curtain; a fantasy with timely implications and a tongue-in-cheek title, "Lola Montez greeting the western hemisphere."

Mrs. E. Halstead Yates is back in her shop, the Game Cook, and is rapidly recovering from injuries she suffered in a fall recently.

Flavins Return To Highland Home

M^{r.} and Mrs. Martin Flavin have just returned from a three-week stay at their ranch in the Cachagua, 27 miles up Carmel valley.

During their stay at their ranch they went on a camping trip to the Big Pines and the Vantana. They also took along the tenant from the ranch and his son. The first day they packed from their ranch to the Pines, which is a distance of about 11 miles of horse trail.

On the second day they went on to the Vantana from the Big Pines, which is about the same distance as from their ranch to the pines. They traveled the new trail which has just been opened to the public. At the summit of the barren peak where the ranger station is, they met Dr. MacDougal and Mr. Duvenek just as they were arriving. Dr. MacDougal and Mr. Duvenek were scouting the trail for the Sierra club, which was hiking in there from the coast the next week. That same day they returned from the Vantana to the pines, and the next day to their ranch.

After having a horse get away and the tenant having to chase almost all the way back from the pines to the ranch to catch him, and losing the water canteen during the early part of the trip to the Vantana, and being without water for most of that very hot day, Mr. Flavin remarked at the end of the trip, "I do not believe I shall ever take that trip again."

Former U. S. Consul Comes Here to Live

"Going to England on a freighter may not sound very thrilling to this well-traveled community, but it's a great excitement for me." This was the answer given by Vera Peck Millis as she was asked about her summer plans. Continuing she said, "On July 3, Mrs. J. Richardson Lucas of San Francisco and I will sail through the Golden Gate on the Martin Baska, a new motor ship of the Knudsen line, carrying only 14 passengers.

"We are eagerly anticipating the 21 quiet days at sea before we reach Belfast. Then we will go to Dublin, the Abbey theater, and travel many roads around Ireland for two weeks or so before we cross to England and begin a leisurely visit of its cathedrals. Someone has said that England's history is on its altars. We'll take time to remember, to browse through the old towns and talk with the people along the country roads. In London we'll have the privileges of Dorchester House, headquarters for the English Speaking Union.

"On September 17, I'll sail for home alone on the S. S. Georgic from Southampton. Mrs. Lucas is spending the winter in England where she plans to settle down near London for some serious writing.

"No, I don't expect to see the king for he will be holding court in Holyrood Castle while we are in England, but we will, I hope, return with a deeper understanding of what the king means to England and England to the world.

"There are several friends we will see in different parts of England, knowing that they will give us our closest touch with English life. We'll not be bicycling through England, but seeing it from the top of a bus."

—ANN MILLIS, 8th.

Spie and Span Grounds for Sunset School

One of the duties of the president of the student body of Sunset school is to appoint a clean-up chairman. The duty of that chairman is to see that the school yards are kept clean. A representative from each class is appointed to attend the meetings. Each class has a certain week which is called Clean-up Week. In that week the class is divided into groups which go in different directions all over the school to pick up papers. This is necessary in order to keep the school yards clean. If Carmel and other cities were as careful about keeping their streets as clean as some of our classes in Sunset school are, streets and parks would be free of the litter of papers which is so disturbing to visitors and so unsightly.

FIREMAN LIKES HIS JOB...By Adaline Guth, 7th Grade

WHILE interviewing Charles Guth of the Carmel fire department I asked him first how he liked his new position as first paid fireman of Carmel.

He said, "I enjoy my work very much, and I like to keep busy and there is plenty here to do to keep a person very busy."

"What hours do you work and what does your work consist of?"

"Well, my hours are from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. My work is keeping up the lower floor of the fire house. That means taking care of all fire apparatus and other equipment. The main thing is to see that trucks and equipment are in tip top condition at all times."

What is the object of having two paid firemen?

"In our new building we need some one there to take proper care of it or it will soon get run down. We also have nice fire apparatus and equipment, and if properly taken care of will last a long time."

It also means quicker and safer operation of fire apparatus in responding to alarms of fires.

In speaking of your fire alarms, will you explain your fire alarm system?

"Certainly, I'm glad you asked me about our system. You see 99 per cent of our fire calls are turned in by telephone. At the present time our system works like this. When you want to report a fire you phone 100. The telephone operator connects you with the fire station and at the same a large brass bell rings, and the lights are turned on automatically."

"The phone is answered and the person putting in the call gives us their street address, and the nature of the fire, and their name."

"We then reach over on the control board and push a button which starts the large siren on top of the fire house. We then note the time and record the exact location of the fire on a black board for information in case any fireman arrives after the truck leaves. He can look on the board and know where to come to help in putting out the fire. We then pull the control levers over the apparatus that is to be used and start the engines, and wait for two firemen to arrive. When the two firemen arrive, one takes a position on the fire truck as hydrant man and the other takes a position as nozzle man. Then we are ready to start for the fire, as I will drive the truck if it's a fire between the hours of 7 a. m. and 5 p. m. That's the story of just how we respond to fires."

"On behalf of Mr. Bernard Rountree, the fire commissioner; Mr. Bob Leidig, the first chief, and all the volunteer firemen, we extend a cordial invitation to the teachers and the pupils to visit the new fire house." Mr. Guth will be very pleased to show them around and explain all the details to them.—ADALINE GUTH, 7th.

MISSION RANCH CLUB ACTIVITIES

According to Happy Whyte, the badminton tournament at the club is progressing. She urges the following players to play their matches immediately:

Sally McCreery, Betty Carr, Beverly Tait, Ray Burns, Peter Rook-Ley, Ann Woolcott, Joan Tait, Dave Davis.

BASEBALL AWARDS

Arthur Hull gave the baseball awards to the players last Friday, May 28, at the assembly at Sunset school. The team took third place in the peninsula league. They won four out of six games. The players who received the awards were Orville Jones, Bobby Frolli, Bill Coffin, Robert Gargiulo, George De Amaral, Charles Gansel, Donald Berry, Danny Villapando, Monty Stearns, Bob Gansel and Irving Parker.—BOBBY FROLLI, 8th.

What's Doing at Carmel Mission

Let's take a glimpse at what's been going on down at the Carmel Mission, the place that tourists have come from far and near to see. During the past several years there have been many improvements on the old building under the supervision of Rev. M. O'Connell, who is restoring it to its original condition.

One of the biggest accomplishments is the new roof that has been built. It is of the same type that it originally was back in 1779. Besides this there has been a new line of buildings constructed along the side which contains a small chapel, a room that is being made into a library to house the many old books and several other rooms.

The old Indian cemetery, where over 3000 Indians have been buried, is being brought back to its original condition with mounds of dirt surrounded by a border of shells to mark the graves. The yard also has many improvements; it is being planted with flowers, terraced and fixed up in general. There is also a little outside chapel in the yard.

The bird bath and bird house add much to the old mission and if one goes down there on a sunny day the place is alive with birds and other wild creatures, much as one can imagine it used to be.

The old adobe walls are being rebuilt and it is planned to extend them around where they originally were. There is also a present movement underway for the Canonization of Father Serra, the original founder of this and many other missions, and who certainly deserves much credit.

One of these nice days why don't you make a visit there and see for yourself what has been done?

—DICK WILLIAMS, 8th.

Del Monte Races Close Tomorrow

The Monterey County Racing Association's inaugural meet will come to a brilliant close tomorrow afternoon with the running of the Monterey added $1000 handicap in which some of the west's finest horses will compete.

The meet has been attracting large crowds each day and has definitely re-established the historic Del Monte track as an integral part of the state racing circuit.

There will be a full racing card of six events today and another six races tomorrow in addition to the Monterey Handicap.

Entries in the handicap include Dignified, Illeanna and Bolamola as the T. Loeff entry, Clean Out and Some Devil as the Mrs. Vera S. Bragg entry, Wingspread and Bragger as the C. M. Wilcock entry, Law Suit, Bon Amour, Crystal Pan, Red Powder and Clear.

As a result of the interest in the meet there will be two regular meets each year in the future, it was announced by Henry P. Russell, executive director of the Monterey County Racing Association.

Purses will be increased and new grandstands built, Russell added.

Galt Bell's Auto Strikes Big Elk On Road from Monterey

Galt Bell was driving over from Monterey when all of a sudden by the gate of Jack's Peak, a large black object bumped against his car, smashing his fender and knocking the headlight off and lay still on the road. He stepped out of the car and lying in front of the car was a large elk. Several cars had gathered around by that time and Mr. Gleason, the game warden, fortunately was in one of the cars. He said that he would take care of it so the Gleasons probably will have venison for the next month.—CORNELIA BELL, 6th.

Dolores Bakery Makes Big Cake

The Dolores Bakery is making Monterey's birthday cake for its big fiesta. This bakery has always made it. Mr. Wishart makes the whole cake himself. When the cake is finished it will weigh 75 pounds. Around the bottom it is 24 inches around. It has decorations extending from the top to the bottom of its three layers. It will have candy roses and leaves on it which will make it very pretty.

Mr. Wishart used 20 pounds of flour, 20 pounds of butter, 20 pounds of eggs (they measure eggs in pounds), 20 pounds of sugar; with a separate 20 pounds of frosting. The candles will be placed on each layer, making 167 candles in all.

This cake has been made for 167 years, from 1770 to 1937, but Mr. Wishart has not been making it that long. Only since he has been in Carmel. The cake will be taken to Monterey by truck. — ELEANOR JOHNSTON, 7th.

Student Body Active

Five Main Committees and Four Officers

THE Sunset school student body is run by four student officers and five main committees. The offices are now held by President Bill Coffin, Vice President Sean Flavin, Secretary Alice Vidoroni and Business Manager Irving Parker. It is the duty of these officers to see that the student body activities are carried on in the correct manner.

The committees and their chairmen play a very important part in student body activities. Probably one of the most important committees is the traffic squad. It is its duty to see that the children are safely conducted to and from school. Dick Williams, their captain, is doing an excellent job of seeing that the boys on the squad are alert to duty.

In taking over the office of vice president, Sean Flavin also took over the chairmanship of the corridor control committee. It is the duty of this committee to see that the children conduct themselves properly in the corridors. Due to the fine work of Sean and his committee, conduct in the corridors has improved greatly since the beginning of the semester.

The first impression of visitors to our school is the neatness of our grounds. Due to the work of Ernestine De Ford and her committee, we can usually say that our grounds are clean. The clean-up committee has done its job well.

If you lose an article of clothing or anything else in Sunset you don't have to worry, because of the efficiency of Harriet Hatton and her committee. They see that all lost articles are returned to their owners.

If the owners cannot be found, the articles are given to the needy through the Red Cross.

Last, but as in most cases, not least, comes the Red Cross committee. During the disastrous flood in the Ohio Valley, Hugh Dormody and his committee collected a considerable amount of money for the people in the stricken area.

We think that we have a very efficient governing body for our school.

—HOWARD LEVINSON.

Why Pupils Like O. W. Bardarson

Everyone that knows O. W. Bardarson (and there are plenty of people that do!) is sure to take a liking to him. He is just one of those persons that everyone likes and admires. What is the reason for this? I believe I can answer this question and so could many other students of Sunset School. One of the reasons we like him is the sincere, straight-from-the-shoulder way he talks to a person. You can tell that he really means what he says, because he expresses himself so well. He also shows great interest in any original ideas that are good. If they are bad, he tells you how to improve them in a way that you don't mind.

He also takes quite an interest in community affairs, the Boy Scouts, and other such activities. He possesses many fine traits and takes part in the doings of the students in his school. We like his keen sense of humor. These are just a few of the reasons why he is so well liked by everyone.—DICK WILLIAMS, 8th.

Stove Pipe Hall Move Is Popular

The Carmel Art Association has started a new project, under the supervision of Mrs. Ethel Warren, curator. There is a small cottage which has been whitewashed and fixed up to represent a club house. This has been named "Stove Pipe Hall", and every other Friday there is a supper there or at the beach. Each member brings about 25 cents to cover the cost of the food.

On Monday nights classes are held in "Stovepipe Hall", where members can sketch volunteer posers.

Mrs. Warren has been the leading spirit of this project, as well as being an excellent curator of the art gallery.—JOAN WARREN, 8th.

Girl Scouts' Court of Honor Is Held

Thursday, May 27 was the date set for the Girl Scout court of awards. Many girls received badges. Three received first class rank. They were Gerry Shephard, Emma Ann Wishart, and Ann Whitman. Three receiving second class awards were Joan Warren, Marilyn Strasburger and Margot Coffin.

First on the program was the flag ceremony, then the awarding of badges, the investiture, then the awarding of second and first class ranks. The four patrol leaders presented Mrs. Hutton, the captain, with a Thanks Badge, the highest award for a leader. This was the climax of the program.

Cider and doughnuts were served as refreshments afterwards.

Abalone Title Won By Giants

The Giants won the 17th annual Abalone season Sunday afternoon by beating the Shamrocks, 187. Under Dick Masten, their captain, who, by the way, broke his collarbone and couldn't finish the season, the Giants won six out of their eight games. The game Sunday was a slaughter. The Giants hit the Shamrock pitcher for 28 hits to 13 for the Shamrocks.

Captain O. W. Bardarson led his team, the Pilots, in hitting, by slugging the Tigers for 25 hits and 16 runs. The final score was 16 to 9. The Pilots landed in second place and put the Tigers into the cellar.

—BOBBY FROLI, 8th.

MUSICAL ARTS CLUB

The Musical Arts Club meets the second Tuesday in the month. There is a program at every meeting. This year they have had fine programs of both music and dancing.

They usually meet at the Van Ess-MacGowan home or at Lial's. When they have their big meeting they hold it at the Country Club.

The officers of this club are: president, Mrs. W. C. Raiguel; vice president, Millicent Sears; second vice president, A. H. Hawkins; secretary, E. C. Hopkins; and treasurer, Roudi Partridge.

Willis J. Walker Adept With Carving Tools

I APPROACHED this matter of securing an interview with one of Carmel's most prominent citizens with a good deal of timidity. I was to see Willis J. Walker, long a resident of this community and owner of the Mission tract and club. When I first went to see him he was so pleasant and seemed so interested in what I wanted to do at the club and how he could make things pleasant for me that I forgot all about the interview. During the course of the conversation he learned that one of our ping pong bats was broken and he promptly went to his work shop and made me another. A good one, too! Then after I came home I discovered that I had forgotten to ask for the interview. I screwed up my courage and telephoned for an appointment.

Mr. Walker has a very interesting hobby. When his boy was young he carved little animals for him and soon developed a good deal of ability for carving. Now he frequently carves for his friends using wood, soap, or anything else at hand. Occasionally he will fashion something at a dinner table and present it to one of the guests much to their pleasure and delight.

Mr. Walker thinks that Carmel has a splendid future and will continue to grow as it is so well known. He is frank enough to admit that he hopes it will grow as it will help the value of his extensive real estate holdings. He thinks the San Simeon highway will help it to grow a lot as it will be a natural stopping place. Mr. Walker has provided all the facilities for playing that are needed to have a good time. There are three fine badminton courts, two tennis courts, a dance hall, and a very attractive place to eat. Other things, such as riding and swimming, will be provided if there is enough interest and enough members to justify it.

CLASS DAY HELD

The graduating class of Sunset school had "class day" on Friday, May 28. They started off the day with a play which took place in "Sherwood Forest" in 1937. After the play there was good old arithmetic, but when a girl took over the class and the teacher had nothing to say, the fun began. All the rest of the day was reserved for fun. Alice Vidovroni was the class teacher and was a pretty good one at that.—BOBBY FROLLO, 8th.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Uzzell at Ninth and Lincoln in Carmel, a very happy birthday party was celebrated last Sunday afternoon. Dicky's guests were Howard Lockwood, Lyman Anikeeff and Del Wilson.—LYMAN ANIKEEFF, 5th.

Artist Got Start Peeling Potatoes

Armin Hansen is a well known artist on the Monterey peninsula. He was a chief cook, peeling potatoes about 10 or 15 years ago on boats roaming around the seven seas. It was here that he learned so much about boats.

He is a very likeable fellow, and is very interested in sports, such as baseball or fishing. He is rather heavy-set and has a good sense of humor to fit his build.

This artist has had his pictures in many of our more prominent magazines and art galleries. He has made several ship models, one of which took him many years to make.

The chief reason the school children know him is that his beautiful picture representing the tree of life, is hung in our school library. It is a source of inspiration for them.

Many Improvements Are Planned at Sunset School During Vacation Time

MANY important improvements are being planned for Sunset next year. There will be no more aching backs because you have to sit in the balcony for 175 stationary chairs are being installed in the auditorium.

Four of the classrooms are to be redecorated, and the exterior of the kindergarten and primary grade buildings will be painted. Additional radiators will be installed in these buildings.

Here is one for the girls of Sunset. The center playfield will be refinishing. Maybe we won't have so many skinned knees after this.

One of Sunset's proudest possessions is also getting some new pictures. You have probably guessed that I am talking about the library. Venetian blinds for one window will help the lighting in the library. The P.T. A. is furnishing drapes from some of the funds that were made at the recent carnival. The library is also getting new chairs and floor covering.

All Saints Plans Special Events

Since retiring from Stanford University Chapel, of which he is chaplain emeritus, Rev. D. Charles Gardner has been making his home in Carmel. Next Monday will be the 40th anniversary of Dr. Gardner's ordination as an Episcopal rector. This interesting event took place on June 7, 1897, and to celebrate it, the rector and parish of Carmel's All Saints church have planned two special events. Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service, they have asked Dr. Gardner to be the celebrant. At noon there will be a luncheon at Pine Inn in honor of Dr. Gardner, given by the rector, Rev. C. J. Hulswé, and members of the vestry. Many members of the church will attend.

There will be other special guests at the luncheon, too. There will be Rev. Henry Shires, D. D., dean of the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, and the Venerable Reginald Hodgkin, D. D., archdeacon of the Diocese of California, who will represent the bishop of the diocese. Willard W. Wheeler is the chairman arranging the luncheon.

TIGHT ROPE WALKER

Along the side of the Sunset playground there is a telephone line. Every one was playing hard when one of them looked and said, "Look at the squirrel." Most of the boys looked up and there was a squirrel running along one of the telephone wires. Three of the boys followed him for about a mile. They had to turn back because they had come a little too far. One of the boys looked back and still saw him running.—DONN PENNELL, 5th.

Beginning June 14, during vacation every morning for two hours at the beach, children from seven years up can imagine themselves to be in Germany, be with Germans, sing folk songs, dramatize poems, dance, read and learn to talk German. No drudgery but fun. Mrs. Otto Koehler, former Berlitz school teacher, now connected with MUHS Adult Education Program will be mother in charge together with her two girls. Very reasonable fee. Write postal to Mrs. Koehler, Carmel, for details. —Advt.

AUXILIARY SELLS POPPIES

The American Legion Auxiliary sold "Memorial Day Poppies" on Friday, May 28. The money will go to the aid of wounded soldiers. The last reports state the amount was rather large. We want to thank everyone for the kind response to this cause.—BOBBY FROLI, 8th.

Carmel In August Different Than In Month of November

If you looked at a picture of Carmel in August, and Carmel in November, you probably would be quite startled at the great contrast. The picture of August would show Carmel crowded to its greatest capacity. A great portion of cars on the streets would have foreign licenses. The beaches would be crowded on the sunny days.

The November picture would show Carmel free of "outsiders". No hotels would be full, and the beaches would be bare; save for a few Carmel people.

Carmel is a very distinguished village. Artists, painters and writers flock in from all over the country. Carmel's main attractions are the beautiful rugged coast line, the quiet and sunny valley, and the beach.—EDWARD RICKETTS, 8th.

Fourth Graders Plan Vacations

Robert Elias will spend some time at Long Beach.

Harry Hunt will spend most of his vacation at the ranch at Big Sur.

Orval Mead will vacation with his father in Ukiah. He may not return.

Shellman Olmsted will vacation a week in Los Angeles and the remainder of the time in Carmel Valley.

Robin Pennell, his brother, and mother will go to New York as soon as school is out.

Marshall Ruhl will go to their ranch in Grass Valley.

Bill Wishart goes to the Arroyo Seco for two weeks.

Jacqueline Fauntleroy to Chicago for a visit.

Berna Mae Grove may go to Paso Robles.

Pauline Hunter will go to a ranch in Carmel Valley.

Phyllis Jones will spend a week at Girl Scout Camp.

Nancy Street will spend most of the summer at Fallen Leaf Lake. She may go to Tall Timber Camp near Fresno for a week.

Edythe Wright will move to Bakersfield this summer.

Stanley Ewig expects to vacation at Boulder Creek.

The W. K. Bassett family plan a trip to Pico Blanco next weekend.

HE'S BACK AGAIN

Have any of you seen that distinguished man who walks with an air? He has a smile and a few words to spare. Guess! Yes, it's . . . Mr. Lyons who was one time manager of the Golden Bough Theater which burned down not long after he became manager. After that, he left Carmel to go into business for himself. Now he is back again, and I'm sure we all welcome him.—LEONA RAMSEY, 7th.

Girl Scouts Hold Annual Election

The Carmel Girl Scout committee held its annual election of officers Friday morning at the Girl Scout house. Mrs. P. J. Ferrante was elected chairman; Mrs. H. J. Morse, secretary; Mrs. William Dekker, treasurer; committee on badges and awards, Mrs. Alger Fast and Miss Abbie Lou Bosworth; publicity, Mrs. T. W. Van Ess; house, Mrs. R. R. Wallace; camp, Mrs. C. J. Ryland; leaders' representative, Mrs. Frank Townsend; brownies' representative, Mrs. E. F. Morehouse; members at large, Mrs. Robert Stanton; committee on training, Mrs. Talbert Josselyn.

The Scout committee wishes any other women who are interested please to offer their services for leadership in either Brownies or Scouts.

TUBERCULAR TESTS

The skin tests were given to 250 children at Sunset School on May 25. Dr. McCarthy very willingly gave the tests, which were for the purpose of determining whether the children had been exposed to "T. B." or not. It was given to everybody who wanted it. If a positive reaction shows, an X-ray shall be given. The tests were given under the sponsorship of the Monterey County Tuberculosis Association.—EDITH COX, 7th Grade.

NURSE TO ENGLAND

The Sunset school nurse, Mrs. Pearl E. Atter, is going to London with Mr. Atter to visit his relatives. While there she is going to view everything of importance to a visitor. She plans to stay three months and then return to Carmel to make her home for the present. She will not return in time to be Sunset's school nurse. The children of Sunset school have enjoyed having Mrs. Atter as their nurse and will greatly miss her.—VIRGINIA GROGAN, 7th.

NOTES AND COMMENT By Sunset Editorial Staff

STREET LIGHTS UP TOWN

Yes, it might spoil a little bit of Carmel, but in cases like this, we must think of safety, too. With the San Simeon highway opening up there will be thugs and hoboes coming and going in and out of Carmel, and with the very poor lighting we have up town there are likely to be holdups and robberies, and maybe someone will get hit on the head with a blackjack. With proper lighting, these things will not occur as much as they would otherwise. Remember, we must think of the safety of our citizens! — ARTHUR STRASBURGER, 8th.

CLEANING OFF THE BEACH

Most visitors, when they visit Carmel, immediately exclaim and praise the Carmel Beach. For its whiteness and softness are quite different from the beaches that have coarse, yellow sand. But when these visitors are on the sand long they notice that there is much dirt sifted through it, and empty match boxes, cigarette stubs, pieces of paper, seaweed, etc.

Visitors are not the only ones who do not like the dirty beach. The Carmelites, who continually want to go and lie down in it, do not do so because of the rubbish.

We want the beach cleaned! Now!

—JOAN WARREN, 8th.

BICYCLE RIDING

Recently in Carmel quite a few of the children are becoming too liberal with the privilege of riding bicycles.

Record Crowd at Filmar Picture

The Filmar had the best attendance at "Fire Over England" since "As You Like It." Lawrence Olivier, who played in "Fire Over England" also is going to play in "I Stand Condemned."

Love is on the run—in high-down a highway strewn with surprises, shocks, thrills and laughs in "Strangers on a Honeymoon," the GB production starring Constance Cummings and Hugh Sinclair at the Filmar, tonight, Saturday and Sunday.

For the next two weeks there are going to be shows at the Filmar, and after that shows every night with matinees every Saturday and Sunday.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." These words from Genesis comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, June 6, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "God the Only Cause and Creator." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "The Lord hath brought forth our righteousness; come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God . . . He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding" (Jer. 51: 10, 15).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "The universe of Spirit reflects the creative power of the divine Principle, or Life, which reproduces the multitudinous forms of Mind and governs the multiplication of the compound idea man" (p. 507).

W.J. Dickinson and his daughter, Annabelle Dickinson, went to Whittier on Saturday and stayed until Monday.

It seems that many of the children of Sunset school are riding their bicycles on the sidewalk. Earl Wermuth has warned many of the children of the danger of this habit. Charles Guth even came down to our school and gave a brief talk on the regulations regarding this practice.

The boys and girls seemed to take this warning very lightly and continued to ride their bicycles on the sidewalks.

Judge Ross commented on this subject, saying that the police had the authority to handle the children the same as any other violators of traffic regulations, and if the boys and girls didn't stop, serious section would have to be taken. — HOWARD LEVINSON, 7th Grade.

STREETS AND TREES DON'T MIX

Why doesn't Carmel fix up its streets? I know because they couldn't without cutting down a woman's most precious tree.—And on account of that there have been many accidents, which probably come to a suit against the city. The road isn't fixed either, so that's the way it goes. When there are two cars coming together on a one-way street, which one is going to back up? There is a big argument and the street still isn't fixed!

Now, if Carmel did fix up its streets many of these things would not happen and the neighbors would be on speaking terms. I've tried now, see what you can do. — DONALD BERRY, 8th.

WHAT? NO JAIL?

Now my motto is "Don't beat around the bush," so, I'll come to the point instantly. That is, we want a jail, (or at least I do). Don't you see, brother Carmelites, the need? Have you ever thought how much money there is in Carmel with all these millionaires and movie actors and actresses making their summer homes here. We have a good police force and all that, but when a criminal is caught there is no place to put him unless he is taken to Monterey and that costs the city too much money. Again, if there isn't a jail, robbers will get bolder and nothing will be safe; then the millionaires will stop coming to Carmel and then we will have much money taken out of Carmel.

So I say Carmelites, we need a jail and the sooner we get it the better it will be for everyone.—PETER ELIJAH, 8th.

Federal Art Project

Burton S. Boundey Explains Its Activities

We had a most interesting visit at the WPA Federal Art Project gallery. Burton S. Boundey, the superintendent, explained the reasons for having such a project.

A few of the purposes of the Federal Arts Progress Works Administration are to provide young artists of promise an opportunity to work as assistants to master artists and craftsmen, developing new techniques and media, to encourage the great democratic art movement already well underway in America, to open up new vistas of employment to the public by providing schools, libraries, and other public buildings with fine examples of contemporary murals, easel painting, and sculpture.

Mr. Boundey explained the rudiments of the project. The gallery has a new exhibit every month. There are artists from all over the peninsula, not including the many artists from all over the United States, that have been encouraged by the government to do lovely things.

This month the exhibit contains mostly lithographs. These pictures are done with a lithograph pencil on a flat piece of rock. Then it is printed on a printing press, so they can print as many copies as they desire.

Sunset school has now in its possession ten lovely hand-painted lithographs of wild flowers.

Mr. Boundey and his assistant are always glad to personally show any visitors the monthly exhibit or the photographs of art projects being completed in other parts of the United States.

Sunset School Sports Review

This year sports at Sunset have been highly successful. To begin at the beginning we had our basketball season. This lasted about one or two months. Sunset school took the lightweight championship of the school league. During the basketball season there was also organized the intramural basketball which consisted of teams made up from boys in our own school.

Following the boys' basketball season came a new and very successful experiment of girls' basketball. Under the leadership of Miss Helen Newmark, the school secretary, the girls progressed very rapidly. At the end of the season most of them were fine players. At least they could hit the basket, which is better than some of the boys can do.

After the conclusion of basketball came baseball, which season we have just completed. There was an intramural baseball league with children from the fourth to the eighth grades included.

Another important event which took place during the baseball season was the peninsula schools track meet. Sunset took third place.

All in all this year's sports have been very successful. Much of this success is due to the excellent supervision and coaching of Mr. Bardanson, Mr. Hull and Mr. Lugoni. On behalf of the students I wish to express our appreciation for their time and effort in helping us.—HOWARD LEVINSON, 7th.

Modern Version of Robin Hood Presented

The eighth grade play was given May 28 at the Sunset auditorium. The play was the modern version of Robin Hood. Robin Hood was played by Bill Coffin, Dame Toots by Madelaine McDonogh, Alan-a-Dale, Harold Johnson; Dame Dale, Ann Millis. They had only one day to produce the play. The nurses of the quintuplets were Emma Ann Wishart, Ann Whitman, Mary Jane Uzzell, Charlotte May and Joan Warren. The quintuplets were Alice Vidoroni, Jacqueline Klein, Harriet Hatton, Betsy Hunter and Dorothy Nash.

The play began with Robin Hood's band asleep in the forest. The scene that was most outstanding was when Dame Toots held Robin Hood up, but he told her to put the gun away. He asked her where she was going and she replied, "None of your bees wax." It was really a hilarious comedy. After the play the class song by Donna Hodges and Madelaine McDonogh was sung by the entire class.

TWENTY-TWO ARRESTS

There were 22 arrests in Carmel from May 4 to May 31. They were mostly vacationists from out-of-town here over the week-end. If it is that bad now, what will it be in the months of June, July and August?

Robinson Jeffers Gives Interview

On Friday afternoon two very frightened girls approached the massive gates of the Jeffers residence. After four retreats they finally got up the courage to ask Robinson Jeffers for an interview.

"We hear you are going to make a trip. Where do you plan to go?" we asked.

"We are going to visit Ireland and Scotland. We will drive back east and from there take the boat. We plan to be gone about six months."

"Are you writing any books at the present time?" we inquired.

"I am just re-typing a book. It is to be published in the fall. The name of it is "Such Counsels You Gave to Me."

"How long have you lived in Carmel, Mr. Jeffers?"

"Twenty-three years. I like the scenery and the temperature very much. The people are quite generous about leaving you alone."

"What is your main means of recreation?"

"I like to build things. At the present I am building a room in the house for my boys. My main delight is being with my boys."

After expressing our gratitude for a delightful interview we made our exit.

They Learn About Orient From Him

An interested group learned Sunday evening something of the Orient from a man who, in his capacity as an engineer for one of the major oil concerns, has traveled widely, and has had the good fortune to photograph most of the places he visits.

He is Royce Greatwood, now in Los Angeles, but a visitor here last weekend, when he stopped with his mother, Mrs. Florence Greatwood. Sunday evening Mr. Greatwood cranked out his films of England, India, China and Bali, commenting as they ran.

The following were present at the showing: Miss Lydia Weld, Miss Hester Schoeninger, Mrs. Francis Carl, Mrs. Louise Grigsby, Miss Leslie King, Miss Grace Biss, Mrs. Mabel Turner, Mrs. Florence Greatwood, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, Joe Schoeninger and Edgar Niedier.

The films were unreel in the home of Miss Clara Hinds on Junipero street.

Adult Woodwork and Pottery Classes Held

The evening shop and pottery class under the direction of Mr. Ernest C. Calley has been organized for quite some time. It is for adults who wish to further their education in these practical arts. Many projects have been turned out in the past year. Among them are woodplates in magnolia and Philippine mahogany, a bed, and a wooden printing press for linoleum blocks.

More people were interested in pottery this year. Many forms were made, from ash trays to a bowl 17½ inches in diameter and 6 inches deep. Candle holders, pitchers and water bottles were also made. All the pottery was fired in our own kiln here at Sunset. Some lovely glazes were added, too.—BERTHA PAUL, 7th.

Alan Peckam, a sailor from the S. S. Astoria, was visiting in Carmel over the week-end.

Students Look Forward To Vacation Fishing

May 1 happened to fall on a Saturday, which was very lucky for the children of Sunset who take an interest in trout fishing. Most of the young anglers headed for the mouth of the Carmel river, but were disappointed to find that there were no limits to be gotten there.

Those who were lucky enough to get a ride up the valley or down the coast got a few more fish; however, only one or two limits were taken.

The main comment was that the fishing would be better in a few weeks when the water went down. With vacation here now there would be fine fishing for all. Many of us are looking forward to it with high hopes.

HOWARD LEVINSON, 7th.

"WAIKIKI WEDDING"

Don't miss "Waikiki Wedding" with Bing Crosby, Bob Burns, Martha Raye, and Shirley Ross, one of the outstanding pictures of the month. It will be shown at the Carmel theater June 7 and 8. Also shown with this picture are some of the coronation pictures. Don't miss them.

SPEND DAY AT BIG SUR

The members of the Canoles family, including Patsy, June, Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Canoles, and Mrs. Edwards, spent the week-end of Memorial Day at Big Sur. While they were there they enjoyed swimming and fishing driving down the San Simeon highway.—CAROL CANOLES, 7th.

Picnic Enjoyed By Girl Scouts

On Thursday, after school, the Girl Scouts had a picnic. The girls reported on the beach at the foot of Thirteenth street. The Scoutmasters, Mrs. Hatton, Mrs. Townsend and the Skipper were the leaders.

Miss Newmark later came and brought a friend, while Patricia Shepard and Ernestine De Ford were passing their tenderfoot test. The two girls will become Scouts next Thursday.

Cans were brought to cook their dinners in. Carrots, peas and hamburgers, and sausages seemed to be the main foods. For dessert graham crackers, Hershey bars, and marshmallows, which we roasted, went over big with everyone.

Around 7:30 Alice Vidoroni played her accordian which entertained all. Later we all sang songs and played Indians.

At 8:30 the party broke up. The Girl Scouts all had a very nice time.

—PATRICIA SHEPARD, 7th.

Carmel Boy Scouts Go to Camp on June 12

Troop 86 of the Carmel Boy Scouts is going to spend eight days down at Big Sur. They are going June 12 and will be back June 20. There is a swimming hole, good fishing, hikes and everything in the way of a good time. There are two plans and we chose No. 1, which is probably the best. Every Scout in the troop can hardly wait until June 12.—DEWITT APPLETON, 7th.

Ruth Austin's Recital

Pupils Show Progress In Dancing at Filmarthe

RUTH AUSTIN'S pupils gave a most effective dance recital last Sunday afternoon at the Filmarthe theater.

The first dances were done by the smallest children. They were very cute. The little girls danced around and soon lit their candles and put on their night gowns and fell asleep. Two little fairies came and woke them up, while the fairies did their dance. After their dance they made them go to sleep again.

Next there was some tap dancing. A group of girls came out and did their tap dance. They had black satin shorts and white blouses. They looked very nice.

After the intermission there was a group called the Oriental Bazaar. It consisted of many Oriental dances. There was a scene with older girls selling things to the dancers. There was the Three Little Sister dance. They wore clever costumes with a full skirt. A Japanese dance was done by three girls. There was an East Indian dance and an Algerian handkerchief dance.

The modern dancing was very interesting. It was done by the advanced group. There were three big girls. They each made up their own dances. They gave group dances and solos.

This recital showed the patience of Ruth Austin in getting the attention of such a large group. The costumes were designed by Ruth Austin and made by Mrs. Rose Gossler.

Ruth Austin likes to teach and always enjoyed dancing. She has been dancing for years. She has been giving lessons for a very long time. She has been giving lessons in Carmel and in lots of other places.

MISCELLANEOUS VERSE..... By Sunset Poets

BEDTIME

When it's time to go to bed,
That awful hour I do dread.
I leave the parlor lights and all
And go out into the dark hall.
My mother calls her last goodnight.
Then through that wilderness I fight,
And up the creaking stairs I run
Wishing that this climb were done.
At last I'm in my cozy room
And then way off to dreamland soon
And in this beautiful land I stay
Till the sun comes up another day.
—PANTHEA LEY, 6th.

Just how old are you?
—So many countries in you,
Just how big are you,
Great Big World?

VACATION TIME

When vacation time comes
It is very much fun,
And all you have to do
Is to sit in the sun.

But, "oh" when you get up
You surely will sigh
To see that your back
Is all red and dry.
—MARILYN BRIDENBECKER,
6th Grade.

THE OLD HOLLOW LOG

In the old hollow log
Was the home of a frog.
Berries grow round it
And vines have bound it.
Bears come there to eat
And birds sing, tweet! tweet!
As the sunshine keeps them warm
By the old hollow log.
By the old hollow log
There's never any fog.
I wish I were there now
If I didn't have to plow,
I'm getting homesick
Living in this fog
And I want to go back
To the old hollow log.

New Books Arrive at Library Here

Carmel library has just received a new shipment of books for children and adults. These books contain fiction as well as non-fiction. A few of the children's books are: "King's Pardon", by Crownfield; "Pecos Bill" by Bowman; "Long Whip" by Walden; "Marcos" by Lee; "Drusilla", by Brook.

And for adults, the new books are: "You Made Me", by Lawrence; "Without Charm, Please", by Hauck; "Buckskin Breeches", by Strong; "The Years", by Woolf; and "Golden Fleece", by Harding. Those are fiction, and the following are non-fiction: "Hamilton Fish", by Nevins; "Parnell" by Haslap; "Wagner", by Newman; "Midnight on the Desert", by Priestley; and "Present Indication" by Coward.

Miss Niles would like to call attention to the library's display of books in the building next to the library. This week they have pictures and books on Old California, dating back to 1850.

Community Church Girls Present Party

On the night of May 24 the girls of the Community church entertained the boys with an all nations' party, featuring games and food characteristic of each nation represented. After playing Chinese tag and a Greek game all of the children trooped into the church to eat a novel supper with chop sticks. The children had great fun eating Chinese rice and Mexican chili beans with these Chinese forks. The meal ended with pineapple and bananas from the Philippine Islands. The boys all voted it a swell party.—PETER THATCHER.

SPRING

The woods are filled with signs of spring,
With joyous sounds, the forst does ring.
The wild flowers are scattered 'bout,
And tiny fluffy birds come out,
The trees with little sprigs are decked
The birds' bright wings are newly flecked.
There sits a squirrel in a tree
Who gaily talks to you and me.
We see these things—and others, too,
As we trudge the forest through.
—ZADA MARTIN, 7th.

THE OLD, OLD TREE

The old, old tree
Stood a long way from the sea
When it was young
It had fun, like me.
Because in its pretty green hair,
The robin was there,
For she had her bed
In the top of its head,
But his hair has turned old and brown,
And he wears an awful frown
For now he is an old, old tree.
—LEVERNE GEARING, 5th.

JOHN L. LEWIS

John L's a man of character strong.
He's big as a bull and fights as long.
First for steel and then for coal
He plans to coast into unions bold.

He raises a hubbub and disturbs the peace,
And scares the crowd at though they were geese.
He stands up there and pounds his fist.
I'd hate to be there if he missed.

For when he missed the earth would shake,
And any Fords that were going by
Would immediately lay right down and die.
—HOWARD LEVINSON, 7th.

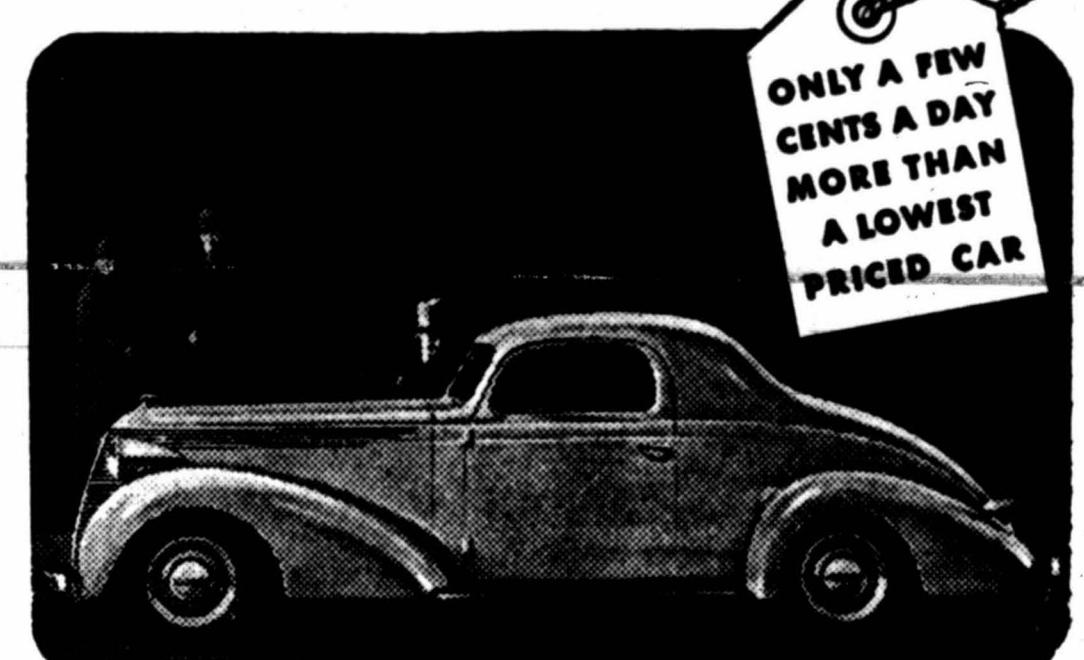

A DAY

At the break of day, when the sun comes up
And the dew shines bright on each buttercup
I hear the church bells merrily ring,
And in the trees the birdies sing.
The flowers awaken in the sun's glare,
And the bees are buzzing everywhere,
The grasses sway in the wind's gentle breeze,
And the leaves are stirring in the trees,
The children romp in carefree play
While the sun keeps shining all the day.

SATURDAY evening ushered in a season of unusual social gaiety in Pebble Beach, Carmel Valley and at Del Monte, with prominent San Franciscans opening their peninsular homes for the racing meet at Del Monte, or joining house-parties of their friends here. Entertaining Saturday evening at their Carmel Valley place, Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Russell had as dinner guests: Messrs. and Mesdames: Robert Watt Miller, Richard Heiman, John Magee, Eric Tyrrell-Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter, Mrs. Robert Hayes Smith, Mrs. Speiker Drum and Mark Elworthy.

Another Saturday evening party was the dinner given at Cypress Point club by Miss Mary Hayne, for the following guests: Mrs. Lindsay Howard; Misses Jeanne De Dampierre, Manuela Hudson, Barbara Tobin; Messrs. Dick Tobin, Charles Thierot, Christian De Dampierre, Winston Frost and George Rowan.

Among the parties in Del Monte's Ball Room Saturday night was one given by Miss Jean McKelvie for Lord and Lady Mandeville. Her guests, for dining and dancing, were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Tyrrell-Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Foster, Winston Frost and Ned Pond. In another party, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winslow were Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Haldorn, and Miss Margaret Lial.

Sunday the scene of festivities moved up the Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. B. Morse gave a luncheon at River Ranch for: Lord and Lady Mandeville; Messrs and Mesdames Herbert Fleishhacker, Edmunds Lyman, Francis McComas, Eric Tyrrell-Martin; Mesdames Howell Van Gerbig, Vanderbilt Phelps; Misses Genevieve Lyman and Mary Morse; Messrs. Winston Frost, Raymond Armsby, George Malone and Woodward Malone.

That evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunt entertained a group at their home in Pebble Beach, including: Messrs and Mesdames Robert Watt Miller, Dana Hogan, John Magee, Henry Potter Russell, Richard Heiman; Mesdames Frances Elkins, Robert Hayes Smith, Speiker Drum; Messrs Mark Elworthy, Cliff Weatherwax and Raymond Armsby.

A large buffet supper and dance was given Monday night after the first day of racing by W. W. Crocker at the Beach club in Pebble Beach. The Guatemala marimba band was engaged to play for the affair. Included among the guests were: Lord and Lady Mandeville, Messrs. and Mesdames William G. Parrott, Eric Tyrrell-Martin, Paul Winslow, Francis McComas; Mesdames Agnes Reynal, Charles Dabney (Santa Barbara), Lindsay Howard; Misses Barbara Tobin, Nancy Gross, Jeanne De Dampierre, Mary Hayne; Messrs. Stanford Gwin, Winston Frost, Dick Tobin, Stephen Parrott, Mark Elworthy, Charles Thierot, Christian De Dampierre.

Among the week-end dinner hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Tyrrell Martin, who entertained Lord and Lady Mandeville, Mr. and Mrs. Christopher A. Buckley, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hunte, Miss Dean MacKievie, Winston Frost and B. Tate.

Jane, Ann and Martha Millis will motor to Indiana at the end of June to spend six weeks with their father in the country near Indianapolis. They will be accompanied by Leslie Vandiver. Bill Millis, home from Stanford on the 9th, will remain in Carmel.

Among the boys going to Boy Scout Camp we find the names of Donald Morton, Howard Levinson, Jimmy Welsh, Jimmy Kelsey, Motje Hansen, Richard Whitmer, Peter Thatcher, John Osgood, John Wood, Arthur Jones, Kent Whitcomb, Bob Gansel, Dick Williams, Charles Gansel, Bobby Frolly, Orval Jones, Alfred Black, Donald Berry.

Chief of Police Thornton Edwards and his wife from Santa Paula spent the week-end in Carmel visiting his mother, Mrs. Carol Edwards. They were returning from Santa Cruz where they attended a convention of the California state division of the International Association for Identification. Chief Edwards made a half-hour speech on finger printing and police records.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Havon and their son Clayton from Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Chandler from Oakland, Franchon Collom, a Berkeley dancing teacher and two friends visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Canoles in Carmel and Big Sur this past weekend.

After returning from several years of foreign travel, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Murray, formerly of Burlingame, have taken a Carmel cottage for the summer. They have been making a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Woodworth of Los Altos.

Miss Nadine Moffett, Miss Dorothy Rigby and Miss Betty Poets will spend the month of June in Carmel, living at San Antonio between Seventh and Eighth. Misses Moffett and Poets are members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of University of California.

W. W. Walls of Missoula, Mont., is coming to Carmel to visit his brother, E. H. Walls, and family.

Eleanor Johnston will go to Lake Tahoe for about a month.

Ellen Pearl McGrory will go to Chiles Valley, near St. Helena, for the summer.

Gordon Stoddard will go to Klamath river and then to Los Angeles as soon as school is out.

Betty Paul will return to her home in Bakersfield and then go to Hollywood this summer.

Inez Machado will visit both Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Virginia Grogan is leaving for Long Beach for the summer.

Bobby Haller plans to go to Nevada very soon.

Tom Saunders is going to Palo Alto for the summer.

Mrs. Alfred Hendrickson of San Francisco was a week-end guest of Mrs. Estelle Havens-Monteagle at Pebble Beach.

Dr. Alice Reinhold, who was associated with the Battle Creek Sanitarium for years as a food expert, is now building across the street from Forest Lodge. Her son is a motion picture actor.

Edwin L. Snyder is building on Casanova near Thirteenth. He is an architect from Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingelow are building two small cottages on Camino Real. They come from Petaluma.

Nancy Lee Watson and John Watson are leaving for New York right after school is out.

J. G. Anderson, former proprietor of a grocery store here, was in town for a few days to visit friends.

Home with his parents, the C. D. Rands on Carmelo is Bob Rand from Montezuma. He will be here for the summer.

The D. L. Stanifords have been vacationing for the week in Yosemite. They returned Thursday night.

Dorothy and Barbara Nash will be going down to their home in Hollywood, after spending a very pleasant seven months attending Sunset school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinkham and Bill Lane of Burlingame, Tubby Nelson of the Diesel Tractor Co. in Sacramento, visited the von Christiernsons over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Newberry of Berkeley were in Carmel over the week-end, supervising the beginning of their new home here. They plan to move back to Carmel the latter part of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ingalls of Pebble Beach left for New York. On June 6 they sail for England and will then go on to Vienna and the Austrian Tyrol. They expect to return in September.

Miss Glenna Peck is now settled in her new home on Monte Verde next to the All Saints' church. Until school is out, Jane, Ann, and Vera Millis will be with her. Their home, Casa Querida, has been rented for the summer.

Mary and Nancy McKinnon are going to Menlo Park after school closes.

Mrs. Ernest Kramm of Oakland is spending a few days in Carmel as the guest of Vera Millis.

Bobby Martin will travel to Slat Springs.

Tommy Berry plans to go to the San Joaquin Valley later this vacation.

Hugh Gottfried plans to leave the state for Nevada this summer.

Pete Steffens is going to London, England, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lawrence of San Francisco have bought the Edith Anderson house and will make their home in Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Phillips and their daughter, Donna, were in Ca-chagua Monday on a fishing trip.

Sibyl Anikeyev is moving her studio from Ocean avenue and Lincoln at the Seven Arts Court to a location next to the Parson's Antique Shop on Lincoln street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weigold and son went to San Francisco to the celebration of the opening of the Golden Gate bridge and stayed with relatives.

Gordy Miyamoto is going to Camp Wing this summer. In order to get in practice he and John Todd are going camping at Big Sur the week before this.

Margery Street plans to spend part of the summer in the Sierras.

Henrietta Erickson plans to go to Sacramento during her vacation.

Sixth Graders Study England

One day last December the Sixth Grade was lucky enough to listen to Edward's abdication speech and it impressed the boys and girls so much that we wanted to study English history. Mr. Gale agreed because he too was very much moved by Edward's speech. "None of us can ever forget the King's words, 'It is not possible for me to carry my heavy burden of responsibilities without the help and comfort of the woman I love.'"

Our next step in the study of English history was to have a dramatization for the Parent-Teachers Association. In this dramatization we went through several of the most interesting phases of English history. Elizabeth, Henry VIII, Victoria, and Edward VI, told us their story. Such scenes as Westminster Abbey and Buckingham and Windsor Palaces unfolded before our eyes.

To add further to our information, we were fortunate enough to see "The Prince and the Pauper". This story was not really true, but as Mark Twain, the author of it said, "It could be true." The coronation scenes were extremely interesting, showing the coronation ceremony as it was hundreds of years ago, and as it remains today.

With this background of English history, each member of the Sixth Grade has a good background of English history and looks forward to the time that is sure to come when the two great English-speaking nations of the world will stand together on such questions as democracy and peace, and bring the world nearer to brotherhood and equality.—ALAN COBBE, 6th.

Barbara Bolin will be among the many girls going to Girl Scout camps.

Save Carmel's Beloved Trees

The birds of Carmel like the bugs and worms that are eating the leaves off the trees for their own eating purposes, but there are not enough birds to take care of all the worms.

A few years ago the same thing happened, but nothing was done, so all the leaves were eaten off the trees. The trees are pretty well spoiled already this year, but there is still time to save a few! It would be worth it for the city to employ someone to spray these trees for our own benefit, and for the benefit of tourists.

DRAMA

"TATTERS, THE PET OF SQUATTERS GULCH"

The First Theater of California, which is in Monterey, celebrated its ninetieth birthday last night by producing an old melodrama, "Tatters, the Pet of Squatters Gulch."

It will play two more nights, June 4 and 5, beginning at 8:45. On those nights the theater will be lighted with kerosene lamps and candles as when it was open in 1848.

Galt Bell, popularly known as the producer and director of "The Drunkard", directed the play, "Tatters, the Pet of Squatters Gulch", being given in the old style, played seriously. Olio or after show follows with many amusing acts, including "Heaven Will Perfect the Working Girl", which is sung by Ruth Marion, "Ta Rah Rah Boom de Aye" and "Little Nell" by Connie Bell.

Mary Henderson plays the lead and during intermission autographed pictures of the heroine are sold for 10 cents each.

The Ghost in the old Adobe Will be taken by surprise, When he finds the Hero wedded The day the Villain dies.

—CORNELIA BELL, 6th.

"TOP OF THE TOWN"

This picture takes place in an ultra-modern hotel. The two main characters are a young orchestra leader, Ted Lane, and a rich girl, Diana Borden. Ted Lane is trying to get a contract for the Moonbeam room which belongs to Diana's four uncles. She finally gets her uncles to rent it to Ted, with whom she is in love.

There are so many amusing incidents it is hard to pick a good one, but I think that the last part was very good. Diana's uncles put her in

Pupils Learn All About New Bridge

The Seventh Grade, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Uzzell, worked out a "unit of work" on the Golden Gate bridge. We would like to tell you a few things we learned.

The opening of the Golden Gate bridge brought festivity and celebration for a week in San Francisco. The Golden Gate Bridge is a lovely structure. It is 8940 feet long. It was opened May 27, 1937.

It is a suspension type of bridge with a span 4211 feet. It is 90 feet wide with sidewalks on each side of the roadway which are 10 feet wide. The cables are 36 1/2 inches in diameter and are made up of 61 wires each. There is 80,000 miles of wire. Its cost is $35,000,000.

The tower on the Main county side rises 746 feet above the water, as does the tower on the San Francisco side. But the San Francisco tower rises 846 feet from bedrock, as 100 feet of it is under water. That makes it one of the tallest structures in the world, a little taller than the Woolworth building in New York, and almost as tall as the famous Eiffel Tower in Paris.

The chief engineer was Joseph B. Strauss. This bridge is "one of the great wonders of the modern world."

THIS FOR THAT.....

By Betty M. Paul, 7th Grade

"SISSEY" had always wanted to join the club, but the boys, whenever he asked about it, would taunt, "You'd be afraid!" So he was still out of the club.

Finally, however, he decided that he was tired of being called "Sissy" or "Sis" and he answered that he bet he wouldn't be scared to their taunt. The boys thought it over and gave him the verdict.

"Of course, you'd have to be initiated in a way to prove that you wouldn't be afraid, so we have decided that you are to spend a night in the haunted house that is in the forest."

"But my Mamma and Daddy won't let me," he had protested.

"Well, if you wanted to be in the club very much you could fix it," answered Bob, the chief of the boys.

He had fixed it, and here he was, walking along the narrow path to the house in which he was to stay.

"The house in the forest was bad enough," he muttered with a shudder, "but that haunted house!"

Just as he reached the house, and was about to enter, a blood-curdling wail penetrated the air. "That was enough to scare anyone," he thought. He knew it was only the screech of the owl, but the night, the full moon, and the thoughts of everything, made it terrible. He looked around as he entered. He lit a candle and found a cot and lay down.

—Dorothy Nash, 8th Grade.

He let the candle burn until he gathered his nerve, then blew it out. The owl wailed again. He wondered if he could scare it away. What was that? Most likely a mouse! There it was again.

The stairs creaked, and the door upstairs banged. Could there be tramps in this house, too? He shuddered at the thought. He stood up and fumbled for some matches to light the candle again, but suddenly his legs felt weak and he sat down and stared. He felt his heart stop and his tongue cling to the roof of his mouth. A long grey object seemed to float through the air, through one door and out the other. A wall, long and drawn out, caused him to look around. There it was again. Now, how did it get there so quickly? He looked around for some means of escape, but in every door there was something to guard it.

"Ma-a-aamma!" he wailed. Then his gaze fell on the stairs. He made a dash for them. He climbed them three at a time. He reached the top only to find another ghost, or whatever those horrible things were.

"Mama, mama," he cried, remaining down stairs again. Then he thought he heard a snicker. He whirled around, only to see another ghost. Then he heard another laugh. Something was funny. He stopped and puzzled. Suddenly an idea struck him. He went into the other room and pulled out his Fourth of July repeater that he had brought along in case of emergency. Those boys had fooled him, and now it was his turn to do a little fooling. He went into the front room, and walked over to the one he thought was Bob.

"Stick 'em up," he shouted, pointing the gun at him.

Bob obeyed at once. "Now Sis," he stuttered, "I-I-I take it all back. P-put that gun down."

Sis did so, but he pulled the trigger first, and to the astonishment of Bob he still lived. Sis began to laugh and the others joined him, realizing what had happened.

"Well, I guess you can join our club," said Bob. "You sure gave me a scare!"

SUMMER ROUND-UP

The summer round-up went off with 35 small children attending. It was sponsored by the P.T.A. and Mrs. Morehouse was chairman. A thorough examination of the preschool children was given by Dr. McCarthy. The largest amount of children attended and it was handled with the most efficiency of any previous years.—JOAN FAUNTLEROY, 7th.

What's Needed
In Carmel Told

Some of Carmel's business men have made comments that might stir others to action. O. B. Jones thinks that Carmel needs either good or improved roads.

Mr. McMenamin thinks Carmel is in the most need of a mail delivery system.

Mr. Whitney thinks differently. He says a shooting gallery is most needed in Carmel, as most business men like to shoot but cannot during the hunting season because of business. This would not only enable them to do a little shooting, but would give them some recreation.

Mr. Ewig and Mr. Frolly agree that some recreation grounds are needed for the Carmel children. Mr. Ewig also believes that Carmel should guard against over-commercialism. He also thinks that traffic restriction signs on Ocean avenue are needed very much.—JOAN FAUNTLEROY, 7th.

SCOUTS AT CAMP WING

Troop 86 of Carmel went to Camp Wing over the week-end. They went to clean up the camping grounds where they will stay this summer. There were 15 tests passed during their spare time. Three became Second class Scouts: Gordon Ewig, Bobby Frolly and Gordon Stoddard. They received their pins at the Court of Honor on May 28. Troop 86 went and helped, but none of the members had the energy to pass any tests.—BOBBY FROLLY, 8th.

THE MYSTERY OF THE FUTURE

*The future is a wonderful thing
With its everlasting secrecy,*

For no one knows what it will bring.

It's the mystery of humanity.

Many wise men know their ancestors' history

And can look into the past,

But the future to them as to all is a mystery

One mystery ever to last.

Use a Modern Automatic Gas

WATER HEATER

OF COURSE it isn't the mere striking of matches that makes the old-fashioned tank type of water heater such a nuisance. It is because someone always has to light the heater. It is because someone always has to wait for the water to heat. Someone has always to remember to turn off the water heater.

With an Automatic Gas water heater all this is different. You turn on hot water at the faucet. You learn to take its service for granted, a part of the modern living you enjoy. The first month of service is always a revelation; you wonder how you ever put up with any other kind of hot water service in your home.

For only an Automatic keeps an abundant supply of water stored hot ready for service at the turn of a faucet. There is no starting or stopping for anyone to remember. It is quiet, dependable, absolutely carefree. And all this for less cost per gallon of hot water than you pay for your present unsatisfactory hot water service.

Judge this automatic service of hot water in your home for yourself; go and see the new Automatic Gas water heaters on display in the nearest P. G. and E. office or at your dealer's store.

Study Children of Foreign Lands

The second grade has been studying the children of different lands and races. During their studies children have come from the upper grades to talk on countries which they have had occasion to visit.

Gerry Shephard gave a talk on Mexico, where she went around Christmas of last year; Sean Flavin told about his experiences in Switzerland and Germany where he went to school for about two years. Maeve Greenan talked about the Philippine Islands where she lived for many years. Esther Van Niel discussed Holland and Switzerland. Edgar Hoffman told about his trip to Germany last summer. Fumi Uyeda, a Japanese girl from Salinas, told about the people in her native country.

Some of the children showed some things that pertained to their country, as Mexican dolls and a carved Swiss music box. — MARGOT COFFIN, 7th.

Allen Knight Given Praise By Students

Allen Knight, the most likeable fellow that you can find in a crowd, punches the ivories on a piano, and works for the P. G. & E. The way most of the adults know him is by his vocation. We boys and girls know him by his ability to play the piano at dances. He thinks he can sing too, but he can't. Allen can do anything on an upright from playing straight music to strumming (hold your hand over the wires on the piano!) in hot jazz.—HUGH DORMODY, 8th.

What Sunset Teachers Are Doing While on Their Summer Vacation

TEACHERS become human for the summer months! O. W. Bardanson drops the cares of Sunset to go on a trip to Seattle for part of the summer. Mrs. Johnson leaves the Seventh Grade problems for a visit to her home in San Jose, from which she may go to the Grand Canyon. Miss Curry and Miss Thomas are leaving the week of graduation for Yosemite. From there Miss Curry will go to the Dominican College where she will teach under Dr. Horn. Miss Thomas is going to Lake Louise, Canada, and on the way back shall tour the Northern National Parks. Miss Alice Graham plans a very interesting trip. She is going to go from Lake Tahoe to Yosemite, and north to Crater Lake, then down to her home in Redwood City. Our art teacher, Miss Ruth Smith, will spend the summer taking auto trips in the northern part of the state. Mrs. Ninneman returns to relatives in Minataka, Minnesota and then will go to Los Angeles for a visit with her sister. Mrs. Lockwood will go to Clearlake Highlands and Monday after graduation as a visitor.

Despite the fact that school is out, some teachers become pupils during the summer. After a week in Yosemite, Mr. Hull plans to go to Stanford. Mr. Gale is going to study at a summer school in Bryce National Park.

We must say a sad farewell to Miss Helen Newmark, who is going to San Francisco, leaving her place as secretary to Miss Helen Wood.

Mrs. Farley may go to San Francisco Teachers College. If she doesn't she will remain in Carmel. Mrs. Trowbridge will be in Pacific Grove. Miss Riley and Mrs. Uzzell have not made definite plans as yet.

—MARGOT COFFIN, 7th.

Many Pets In Carmel

Dogs In Majority, But Plenty Others Also

AS YOU all know, there are all kinds of pets in Carmel. There are dogs, cats, ducks, chickens, goldfish, turtles, mice, skunks and alligators.

Dogs are most common. Some people let their dogs go to bed with them.

Cats, you know, climb trees and we have to call the fire department to get them down. What a job!

If you want to hear something ducky, listen to the quack-quacks at McGurty's.

Now, if you would like a four o'clock alarm, move down by Charles Guth, as they have a rooster that crows from four a. m. until he goes to sleep at night. Whenever Mr. Gale calls for silence in his class room, the Guth's rooster begins to crow and the class begins to laugh.

If you want to see a menagerie, go to Beverly Leidig's. She has goldfish, turtles, dogs and cats. What a mixture!

In case you would like to see Miss

Curry scared, ask Peter Hately for his pet mouse.

Phyllis Reese has pet skunks. These are nice pets when babies. I don't think people like their perfume when they get older.

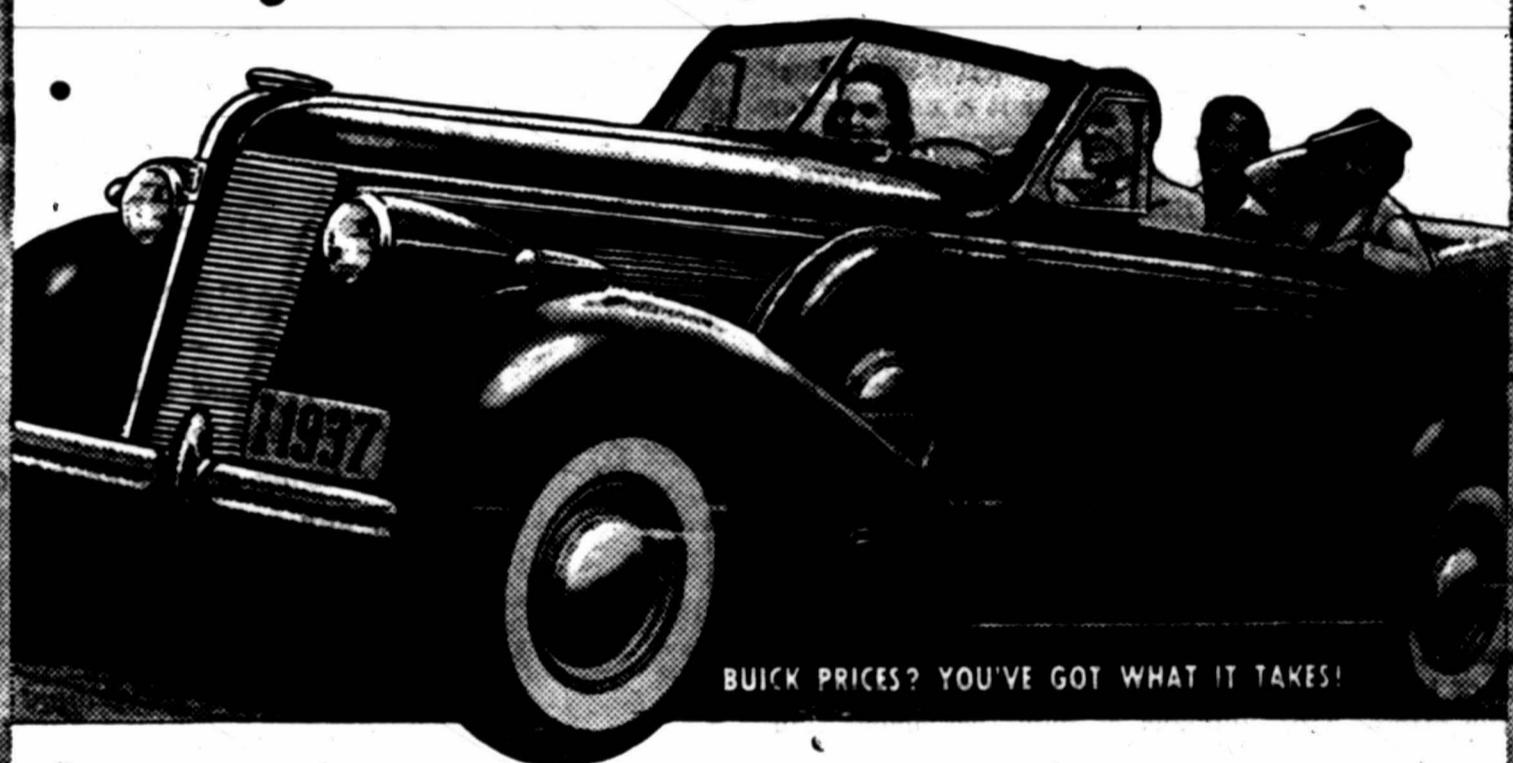

Cornelia Shuman has a pet alligator. How nice! But it will have to have a few teeth pulled later.

If everyone brought their pets to the park we could have a real menagerie. What a mixture! What a town!—ADALINE GUTH, 7th.

LA COLLECTA CLUB

La Collecta has been organized for 12 years. It has a limit of 20 members. It is an organization of busy housewives. Each year they have some unit of study. One year they studied California. This year they are studying different countries. The officers are: Mrs. Lewis Slevin, president; Mrs. Homer Bodley, vice president; Mrs. Cecil Haskell, secretary; Mrs. David Nixon, treasurer.

TOP-NOTCH PLACE to spend the summer

BUICK PRICES? YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES!

IF you're looking for the pleasantest place in the world to spend your summer—just put yourself behind the wheel of this sparkling new Buick and you're there!

You sit in a seat that seems tailored to your frame. Your hand's on a wheel that feels more at home than your mashie. Your toe's on a treadle that unleashes the surging power of the ablest engine of its size in the world—Buick's valve-in-head straight-eight engine!

You've brakes to halt you quick and easy—lullaby springs to cradle you softly over bad spots—you've got the bellwether car of the year!

Maybe the big, sleek, rich look of Buick makes you think it's a little beyond your means.

But the price on the Buick SPECIAL is not only the lowest in all Buick history but lower even than on some sixes.

So before you buy any car, get the figures on a Buick. The place for you this summer is in the leader's seat—get your order in now and be sure of a wonderful time.

SPEND YOUR SUMMER VACATION IN CARMEL

Why go to another place for a vacation when you've got Carmel with all its beautiful woods, beach, swimming, fishing, hunting, golf, etc. People living in Carmel for years still do not know all about Carmel and its wonders.

There is beautiful scenery in Carmel that hundreds of artists come to see. There are places in Carmel where you can be by yourself, unmolested by traffic or noise. Now can you show me a better place for a vacation than in our own Carmel-by-the-Sea?

GEORGE GOSSLER, 8th.

POST OFFICE

What we need is another bigger and better post office! When going to the post office remember it is much better to walk unless you want your car to come home with a few more dents in it. The equipment you need if you have a high post office box is a flashlight, and something to stand on, but if you're lucky and have a low box all you need is a flashlight and 15 minutes. Another thing to remember is that the post office is a good fire hazard, especially when it is on Saturday just before it closes. Those are only a few of the hundred and one reasons why we need a new post office.

ANN MILLIS, 8th.

A NEW HIGHWAY

Should Carmel have a new highway running through town? The main and only trouble as far as I can see is the problem of the school. Many motorists have complained of the stops that have to be made while children cross the street. This happens at only two places four times a day. They very rarely wait more than half a minute. However, with the completion of the Carmel-San Simeon highway we must expect lots more traffic. On the other hand a large majority of it will stick to the highway going straight to Monterey. Unless Carmel increases in size I am against making a new one. Besides we could make an underground passage across San Carlos for the children on their way to and from school.

BILL COFFIN, 8th.

FIRE PROTECTION

I am taking this opportunity to express myself on a matter that has confronted the people of Carmel and its outskirts for some time. The subject is that of fire protection in the regions surrounding Carmel. I believe that the residents of Carmel Woods, Hatton Fields and Carmel Point should have the privilege and the use of the local fire department. The city of Carmel has presented itself with a new firehouse, equipment, and two paid firemen for the protection of its citizens. It has done well in doing so. I do think, however, that the city should take another step and extend this protection to its suburbs. There are many valuable and beautiful homes and properties in these sections and I'm sure the people would be willing to pay their share of the involved expense for their own protection.

The city would also benefit by this, as, especially in the Carmel Woods, there are thousands of trees. If a fire were to start in this vicinity the surrounding forests would be very liable to catch afire, bringing great disaster and loss. The fire department of Highlands and other nearby places would probably arrive on the scene too late to give any great aid and Carmel would be at a terrible loss, both in its beauty and in property damage.

I therefore think it would be very profitable for the citizens of Carmel and those of the outskirts to take up this matter and decide something definitely towards adequate fire protection in the surrounding regions of Carmel.

ODE TO THE EIGHTH GRADE

*It's early in the morning
 And the gang is checking in,
 But it seems there's something missing
 And we know it's sunsets grin.*

*It seems like only yesterday
 They started working here.
 Why they scarcely knew the difference
 Between the new teachers each year.*

*But they settled down to business
 And it wasn't very long
 Till they knew the way we did things
 Which was right and which was wrong.*

*Full of fun and always joking
 Didn't seem to have a care,
 But was always there and willing
 When it came to do their share.*

*So the children soon grew to know them
 And were proud to call them friends
 Now it's time for us to realize that
 This friendship's at an end.*

*So that is why this last school morning
 Every child is feeling low
 For it doesn't seem quite right now
 The eighth grade should be called to go.*

—EDITH COX, 7th.

VACATION

*School days are over,
 Vacation has come.
 Let's throw away school books,
 And join in the fun!*

*Rulers and pencils
 Are in the trash pan.
 Let's off to the playground
 And play while we can!*

*When vacation is over
 And school comes again
 We all shall be ready
 To study (in vain).*

—CORNELIA SHUMAN, 6th

DOORBELL RINGS

*Have you ever noticed closely
 All the different kinds of rings
 That the doorbell uses to announce
 All the persons that it brings?*

*Long and loudly sounds the landlord,
 Unless the rent is paid.
 While the newcomer's ring is cautious,
 It sounds timid and afraid.*

*The Irish friend's is hearty
 When he's come to make a call,
 While you always tell the Scotchman's ring,
 'Cause it hardly sounds at all.*

*So be sure to notice closely
 All the different kinds of rings
 That the doorbell uses to announce
 All the people that it brings.*

MARGOT COFFIN,

WHAT'S WRONG WITH CARMEL

Carmel needs street lights! Carmel needs better roads! Carmel needs this! Carmel needs that!

What's wrong with Carmel? Wouldn't it look nice to see neon signs down the middle of Ocean Avenue? . . . and street lights along Scenic Drive?

Tourists come to Carmel to see something different. If Carmel is made to look like any other small town there is no reason for people to even come here. Why not let Carmel alone? If it must change, let it change by itself.

HOWARD LEVINSON, 7th.

KEEPING THE BEACH CLEAN

Now that summer is coming on, people will be coming from near and far to visit Carmel.

We must remember that Carmel is renowned for its beach and its beautiful coast. If people come and find the beach that they had heard so much about littered with trash they will not have a very good opinion of Carmel, or its beach, or the people who told them about it.

By cleaning up the beach this calamity will not have a chance to take effect.

About two years ago some seals were killed on the rocks along the beach, and their unfortunate bodies were washed upon the shore. The city of Carmel did not dispose of these corpses until they had fairly rotted upon the sands. This is just a sample of the careless way in which our beach is kept.

Picnickers should not bury the left-overs of their meal, but should dispose of them in the several incinerators along the beach.

Cleaning up does not mean to put "Dump No Rubbish" signs all around, but to really get down to business and enforce this rule.

MONTY STEARNS, 8th.

SIZING UP THE TEACHERS

A lot has been said about the good standards and ways of teaching in Sunset School, so you already know of these good points. You've heard how O. W. Bardarson took over the school many years ago and made it into what it is today. I'd like, however, to take into consideration another factor which has helped Sunset immensely, and that is the teaching staff. I'd like to express a viewpoint that struck me when I first came here and has stayed with me ever since. That is, that the teachers here are all young with modern ideas. There aren't any of those so-called "old fogies" who saw the highlights of their life back in the gay '90's and could easily retire on an old age pension.

DICK WILLIAMS, 8th.

PLEA FOR SWIMMING POOL

So many children have asked and written about having a swimming pool in Carmel, that I think something should be done about it. Every time this idea comes up in the City Council it is overruled with people saying: "What's wrong with the ocean?" In Carmel the ocean is quite cold and it has a very bad undertow, so that it is too dangerous for children to go in and really swim. Why doesn't someone do something about the idea of a swimming pool and not have it put aside like the making of the tennis courts.

ALICE VIDORONI, 8th.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION

Carmel citizens! Come one, come all, to the election of the new member of the Board of School Trustees for Sunset School. The election is today, June 4, 1937. Mrs. E. A. H. Watson is the only candidate in this year's poll. All of us here at Sunset know how capably she has worked on committees for the P.T.A. and how much she did for the Carnival. We feel that she will be a worthy successor to Mrs. Helen Levinson, who is retiring from office after a term of three successful years.

HARRIET HATTON, 8th.

WHERE! OH WHERE!

Where! oh where! did the tennis courts go?
 Oh where oh where can they be?
 They were started up in Carmel Woods
 But never were finished, you see.
 Oh! Carmel needs these tennis courts.
 Yes! Carmel needs them bad (ly)
 But then the workmen quit the courts.
 It seems they aren't to be had.
 What was the reason for quitting?
 'What was the reason,' says I.
 We waited - we waited anxiously,
 The year has gone by.

WORN BRAKE DANGER

Brakes worn down to a point where there is any question about their efficiency should be given prompt attention, advises the Emergency Road Service of the California State Automobile Association. Brakes convert speed energy into heat energy. Heat causes expansion and as most brakes are of the internal type, with bands inside the drums, long and hard application causes the drum to expand away from the lining. If the brakes are only fair when drums are cold, they may fail entirely when hot.

Voters' League Luncheon

Women to Meet at Carl Voss Home at Big Sur

THE June luncheon meeting of the Monterey County League of Women Voters will be held at the Big Sur home of Mrs. Carl L. Voss next Wednesday. The day's activities will begin at 10:30. Tickets must be purchased before Sunday. As Big Sur is rather removed from the source of supplies, the committee must know the number to be served well in advance. No donations are being solicited this year for the league's "benefit" luncheon. Instead the price has been set at $1, thus giving everyone an opportunity to help finance the League program. Non-members, especially those interested in learning of the work of the League, are welcome at this all-day meeting. Tickets are in the hands of all board members as well as all incoming officers.

In Carmel Miss Emma Abel, 1423-J, will also arrange for transportation. Those attending who have extra room in their cars as well as those wishing transportation should call Miss Abel. Others in Carmel having tickets for sale are: Mrs. Dorothy Chapman, Mrs. L. O. Kellogg, Miss Lorena Ray, Miss Orre Haseltine, Mrs. Howard Walters, Mrs. Robert Stanton, Miss Lydia Weld, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. David Ball, Mrs. Kent Clark, Mrs. Ritter Holman and Miss Ruth Huntington.

On the program are Mrs. Harold Nachtrieb, state personnel chairman; reports from department chairmen; a continuation of the discussion on county government by Mrs. Voss.

The Voss country home at Big Sur is located two miles beyond the state park in the Santa Lucia coastlands division. The turn to the right will be sign-posted. Parking facilities are adequate.

Last Rites Held for Mrs. Whitney

While last rites were held for Catherine M. Whitney in Salinas Saturday morning, Carmel places of business closed their doors from 11 o'clock to 11:10, out of respect for the popular Carmel woman who died in a plane crash at Santa Maria the night of May 26, and sympathy for her bereaved husband, Willard Whitney.

The body of Mrs. Dorothy Fauntleroy, the other Carmel woman killed in the crash, was sent to Chicago for burial the night following the tragedy, in the charge of her father, Louis H. Bigelow of Chicago. The two children, Joan and Jacqueline, are staying at Peter Pan Lodge until the end of the school term, after which they will go east with their father.

MUSICAL SOCIETY JINKS TO BE HELD ON MONDAY

Carmel Music Society is going to give a jinks Monday, June 7, at the Greenroom on Casanova street. There will be several skits on the program. Afterwards refreshments will be served. All members are urged to attend.

—VIRGINIA GROGAN, 7th.

ROBERT SMITH INJURED

Robert Smith, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Los Angeles, was given emergency treatment at the Peninsula Community hospital for a gash inflicted in his head while playing in the state park at Big Sur.

Legion Barbecue to Be Held on Sunday

Arrangements are complete for the postponed Carmel Legion post's barbecue which will now be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Indian Village. Admission tickets, which are procurable from any member of the legion, will admit the holder through the toll gate. Joe Catherwood and Walter Gaddum are in charge of arrangements.

Growth of Scouting Shown in Report

Growth in Girl Scouting during the past year was disclosed in the annual report made by Miss Mary Ackroyd, the executive, at a meeting of the Monterey Peninsula Girl Scout Council Tuesday morning. Not only has there been a great increase in the number of girls and women interested in the program, but standards established locally are such that the Monterey peninsula organization has a statewide reputation.

Last year there were 165 Girl Scouts and Brownies; this year the number has increased to 316. Council members have increased from 12 to 42; the number of troops from 12 to 17. Last year there were nine captains and 7 lieutenants; now there are 17 captains and 16 lieutenants, and troop committee members have increased from 10 to 30.

Next year it is expected that the number of high school troops will be increased. Mrs. A. C. Miller was appointed by the council to find out from the national organization all about the revised program for older girls.

Peter Ott will go to Delaware with his parents this summer.

Week-end Results In Robberies Here

Chief of Police Robert A. Norton reports that there were several robberies over the week-end. Several cars were robbed along the beach, one of $12 in currency.

Another had an overnight bag and valuable photographic equipment stolen. The car belongs to J. A. Ray of Oakland, and a Leica camera, a Weston lightmeter, and a view finder were among the articles stolen.

PETER PAN LODGE DRAWS 4 GUESTS FROM BAY CITY

Peter Pan Lodge accommodated the following guests over the weekend: the Misses Ajeta Brownies of Sacramento and Cynthia MacCracken of San Francisco, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Lipsitt of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rosenblum and Mr. and Mrs. W. Carpenter of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Aron of San Francisco, and Dr. H. H. Chamberlain from Sacramento.
